Transportation and Mobility Reimagined - Making Transportation Future Ready

SPEAKER PROFILES

Julie Timm, Chief Executive Officer
Greater Richmond Transit Company

Julie Timm became Greater Richmond Transit Company's (GRTC's) sixth CEO and first female CEO in company history in this past September. She has more than 20 years of experience in customer-focused strategic planning and management of widely diverse transportation capital projects at the local, state and federal levels.

She returned to Virginia from Tennessee, where she served as the Chief Development Officer for Nashville Metropolitan Transit Authority and Regional Transportation Authority of Middle TN. She is a native of Hampton Roads, having previously worked as the transit development officer for Hampton Roads Transit from 2012 to 2016. She holds a Master of Science and a Bachelor of Science in Biology from Old Dominion University and a Master of Business Administration from Vanderbilt University.

Stephen Brich, Commissioner
Virginia Department of Transportation

Stephen Brich has been the Commissioner of the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) since early 2018. He oversees the third largest highway agency in the country, which is responsible for building, maintaining and operating the state's 58,000 miles of roadway, 21,000 structures and bridges, six tunnels and three ferry systems.

Brich has extensive experience specializing in the areas of traffic engineering, safety, operations, and transportation planning and research. He previously served as a vice president with Kimley-Horn and Associates, focusing on transportation matters in Virginia.
