ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

These BACK TO BUSINESS grants are designed to provide immediate relief to businesses to help them remain in business through the COVID-19 pandemic and prepare for reopening under the guidelines of Forward Virginia. Each Middle Peninsula locality (Gloucester, Mathews, Middlesex, Essex, King and Queen, and the Towns of Tappahannock, Urbanna and West Point) may have slightly different eligibility requirements. When applying, please select the appropriate locality where your business license is permitted.

Participating businesses must certify that expenditures requested for reimbursement were expended to specifically address the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Participating businesses must certify that any cost reimbursement request has not been paid for with any Federal funds associated with COVID-19 pandemic. In addition, if the business has applied for and

GRANT TIMETABLE

The BACK TO BUSINESS program will feature multiple rounds of reimbursement and grant awards. Applicants may apply once for each time period. Reimbursements will be awarded on a "first come first served" basis on submission of proper documentation. Reimbursements will be made until all funds allocated have been awarded. Requests for final reimbursement must be received by November 15, 2020 to ensure payment processing and remittance by December 30, 2020.

 Due to the COVID-19 regulations, areas of our office had a enough business to do deep credit and pay all or could not pay on a timely basis. As a result, in order to keep our staff fully employed, several of our partners were notified a salary bump to $1,000 and we had to allocate the use of credit support.
