

John Willingham, CPA
President
Stoneridge Companies, Inc

Owner of Stoneridge Companies, John is an entrepreneur and investor focused on strategic development and long-term value creation across Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland. With a background in commercial lending, financial management, and public accounting, he brings disciplined financial insight to complex ventures. He serves on F&M Bank's Board of Directors and the Frederick-Winchester Service Authority. A former Winchester City Councilor and five-year Council President, John remains deeply engaged in regional planning and civic leadership.