

Isabel Thornton
Executive Director
Restoration Housing

Isabel is the Executive Director of Restoration Housing, which she founded in 2014 out of a passion for historic preservation and affordable housing. She received a BA in Architectural History from the University of Virginia and an MHP and MPL in Historic Preservation and Urban Planning from the University of Southern California. She serves on the Board of Directors and the Real Estate Development Committee for Community Housing Partners; the Board of Directors for Carilion Medical Center; and on the Blue Ridge Interagency Council on Homelessness. Isabel lives on a farm in Botetourt County with her husband and four children.
